

Slavery, Child Labour & Human Rights Policy

Industrial GRP Ltd. recognises that slavery, child labour and human trafficking remains a hidden blight on our global society. The aim of the Company is to identify our responsibility by alerting staff to the risks, however small, in our business and in the wider supply chain. Staff are expected and encouraged to report concerns to management, where they are expected to act upon them.

We are committed to ensuring that there is no modern day slavery, child labour or human trafficking in our supply chains or in any part of our business. Our Slavery, Child Labour & Human Rights Policy Statement reflects our commitment to acting ethically and with integrity in all our business relationships and to implementing and enforcing effective systems and controls to ensure slavery, child labour and human trafficking is not taking place anywhere in our supply chains.

This Policy considers, and supports, the policies, procedures and requirements documented in our Management Systems, in-line with the requirements of ISO 9001:2015, ISO 14001:2015 and ISO 45001:2018. The implementation and operation of this management system underlines our commitment to this policy statement. Formal procedures concerning slavery, child labour and human trafficking have been established, including disciplinary procedures where they are breached. Additional procedures ensure that this policy is understood and communicated to all levels of the company, and that it is regularly reviewed by the Directors to ensure its continuing suitability and relevance to the company activities.

The Company will achieve these aims by our initiative to identify and mitigate risk in the following ways (But not limited to): -

- More stringent vetting and investigation of our supply chain (contractors, sub-contractors, policies, contracts etc.).
- Continually audit & review our practices for checking all employees are paid at least the minimum wage and have the right to work;
- We encourage the reporting of concerns and the protection of whistle blowers.
- The company will not knowingly support or deal with any business involved in slavery, child labour or human trafficking.
- We have zero tolerance to slavery, child labour and human trafficking. We expect all those in our supply chain and contractors comply with our values.

To ensure a high level of understanding of the risks of modern slavery, child labour and human trafficking in our supply chains and our business, we provide training to relevant members of staff. All Directors have been briefed on the subject. We use the following key performance indicators (KPIs) to measure how effective we have been to ensure that slavery, child labour and human trafficking is not taking place in any part of our business or supply chains:

- Completion of Audits by Directors, Managers, Safety Managers and Safety Advisors;
- Use of labour monitoring and payroll systems;
- Level of communication and personal contact with next link in the supply chain and their understanding of, and compliance with, our expectations.

This policy is in accordance with Section 54 of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and constitutes our company's slavery, child labour and human trafficking statement. For transparency the company will publish the Slavery, Child Labour & Human Rights Policy Statement on its website for the public, customers, suppliers and employees to view.

This policy applies to all those employed by Industrial GRP Ltd
